

WHAT

Kentucky Cancer Patient Navigators' Fall Forum

WHEN

Thursday, 11/8/12
8:15am—4pm

The Kentucky Cancer Consortium is pleased to announce an inaugural forum for cancer patient navigators. This one-day meeting will provide a neutral venue for cancer patient navigation professionals from a variety of settings to gather and share best practices, highlight helpful resources, network with like-minded colleagues, and consider development of a statewide Cancer Patient Navigator Network. Speakers will include: Sandra Brooks, M.D., Norton Cancer Institute; Fran Feltner, DNP, KY Homeplace; Angie Patterson, Georgia Society of Clinical Oncology, as well as a panel of your colleagues —Kentucky navigation professionals. Large group discussion will be facilitated by Dr. Jennifer Redmond.
