

Curtis Hancock, farmer, Fulton

Jane Gentry Vance, poet, Lexington

John Huggins, retired educator, Louisville

Pat Brunner, homemaker, Berea

Jim Rutlege, master distiller, Lebanon

DID YOU KNOW ...

- ▶ All Kentuckians age 50 and older should get regular colon cancer checks.
- ▶ Early colon cancer may have no symptoms.
- ▶ 9 out of 10 colon cancers may be prevented or cured with regular checks.
- ▶ Your health plan may pay for colon cancer checks.

NOW YOU KNOW

NOW YOU CAN

Talk to your doctor about getting checked for colon cancer

Kentucky Department for Public Health
Colon Cancer Screening Program
www.kycolon.org

Photographs courtesy of Kentucky Monthly magazine and photographers Steve Patton, Tim Webb, Warren Brunner, and Ann Stroth